

Beuth NML-information Oktober 2023

here 2023-10-01

Dear Standards Management Users,

Please take note of the following information:

1. Information on specific collections:

The following collections have not been updated (the production in which we made the last update is given in brackets):

GOST	(2022-02)
PKN	(2022-02)
SABS	(2023-08)

Other:

BVF: Free PDFs of technical rules in the Beuth webshop

In future, Beuth Verlag's webshop will also display documents whose PDF files are generally available free of charge from the publishers. This serves to expand the range of the shop and increase its attractiveness as a contact point for obtaining technical rules. At the same time, the documents, which typically cover very technical topics, will gain more prominence due to the shop's broad visitor base. DIN Software GmbH will see to the required data basis. BVF is kicking off this initiative with 23 current technical rules of the Bundesverbands Flächenheizungen und Flächenkühlungen e. V. (German Federal Association for Surface Heating and Cooling), which can be downloaded from www.beuth.de from the 2023-10 issue. Registration in the Beuth webshop is required in order to use the download function.

SNV Electrosuisse

As previously announced, work has begun on updating the Electrosuisse collection as part of the SNV (Swiss Association for Standardization) body of standards. However, no new records have yet been added to the database in the 2023-10 issue.
